Brevard College
Fall 2020
Faculty Position in Criminal Justice

Brevard College seeks an enthusiastic teacher to fill a tenure-track faculty position as an Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice, beginning fall 2020.

Successful candidates will possess a Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or Sociology with expertise in deviance or criminal justice, or a related discipline. We seek a dedicated teacher who will participate fully in a thriving Criminal Justice Program that emphasizes experiential learning and application. Faculty in the program participate in curriculum development, maintaining community relationships, advising students, program assessment, and all other aspects of the program. The successful candidate will demonstrate a record of, or potential for, excellence in teaching and a strong commitment to working within a diverse liberal arts environment.

Successful candidates must be interested in teaching courses at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum, including introductory courses, service courses, and upper-level courses. Teaching responsibilities include Introduction to Criminal Justice, required lower and upper-level courses, including courses in the candidate's area of expertise. The candidate should have teaching competency in criminal justice theory, and will teach courses such as deviance, corrections, criminology, and criminal justice ethics.

Brevard College, founded in 1853, is a residential liberal arts college. Situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Brevard College is located 33 miles southwest of Asheville, North Carolina. Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action. Our faculty purposefully engage with learners in direct experience and focused reflections in order to increase knowledge, develop skills, and clarify values.

The starting date for this position is August 2020. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. In order to provide a safe and productive learning and living environment, Brevard College conducts background investigations on all final candidates being considered for employment.

Applicants should submit a cover letter of application addressing interest in Brevard College; curriculum vitae noting relevant experience, as well as courses the applicant is experienced or interested in teaching; statement of teaching philosophy addressing experiential education; a sample syllabus from a course recently taught if applicable; and contact information for three professional references to:

Chair of the Criminal Justice Search Committee
Brevard College
One Brevard College Drive
Brevard, NC 28712
Email: crjjob@brevard.edu

Additional information is available at the College website, www.brevard.edu. Brevard College seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce, and encourages qualified candidates across all group demographics to apply. Brevard College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.