

Adjunct Faculty Positions

Brevard College seeks enthusiastic teachers to fill adjunct faculty positions in several fields, beginning fall semester and continuing into future semesters with positive teaching evaluations.

Adjunct positions are available in the sciences (geology, biology, health), mathematics, religion (world religion, Old and New Testament), accounting, criminal justice, English, communications, education, fine arts, history, psychology and political science. A terminal degree from an accredited institution is advantageous, but an MA/MS/MBA may be acceptable. Evidence of teaching experience is required.

Brevard College, founded in 1853, is a residential liberal arts college. Situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Brevard College is located 33 miles southwest of Asheville, North Carolina. Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action. Our faculty purposefully engage with learners in direct experience and focused reflections in order to increase knowledge, develop skills, and clarify values.

Applicants should submit a cover letter of application addressing interest in teaching at Brevard College and curriculum vitae to the appropriate academic area listed below. Electronic applications are welcomed; the College street address is also below.
