Contest rules

- All participants must check-in at the chalk distribution tent upon arrival at Brevard College. Failure to check-in at the chalk distribution tent will result in disqualification of that square.
- Each drawing must remain within the designated square area.
- No spray fixatives may be used.
- In addition to chalk distributed by Brevard College, participants may bring their own sidewalk chalk. All materials must be temporary and washable with soap and water. No 3D paint or non-chalk materials will be permitted. The use of any prohibited materials will result in immediate disqualification.
- Drawing on buildings, trees, or any surface other than assigned squares is not permitted.
- The primary design of a square must be created in chalk.
- No materials may be used that emit offensive odors or cause potential annoyances to other artists or festivalgoers.
- Three-dimensional elements may be incorporated into square designs. These must not exceed the square area, cannot exceed 2 feet in height, and must be removed by the artist no later than 5 p.m.

- The festival is a family event. Any artwork that contains nudity, profanity, or other content deemed inappropriate by festival officials will be removed.
- Only students who have registered for the competition will be eligible to receive prize money.
- Judges or festival officials can disqualify artists for failure to adhere to any of the above guidelines.
