

Brevard College
Fall 2024
Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Physical Education

Brevard College seeks an enthusiastic teacher to fill a tenure-track faculty position as an Assistant Professor of Physical Education, who will also serve as Coordinator of the Physical Education & Recreation Program, beginning in the of fall 2024. Candidates considered for this position will possess a terminal degree in a relevant field, in hand by starting date (e.g., Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Physical Education).

Successful candidates must be engaging teachers of physical education who will teach at all levels of the undergraduate curriculum, including courses in teacher licensure for Physical Education and a minor in Coaching. Teaching responsibilities include, but are not limited to, Theories and Techniques in Coaching, Methods of Team and Lifetime Sports, Physical Education Pedagogy, and Adapted Physical Education. Experience in supervising K-12 teacher licensure candidates and evidence of community collaboration with K-12 schools is desirable. The standard teaching load is 12 credit hours/semester, and all faculty members actively contribute to program assessment, serve on committees, advise students, and participate in professional development and service to the College.

Because the coordinator also recruits students to the program, we seek a dynamic and innovative leader who will work collaboratively with existing faculty. The successful candidate will demonstrate a record of, or potential for, excellence in teaching and have experiential teaching skills.

Brevard College, founded in 1853, is a residential liberal arts college. Situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Brevard College is located 33 miles southwest of Asheville, North Carolina. Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action. Our faculty purposefully engage with learners in direct experience and focused reflections in order to increase knowledge, develop skills, and clarify values. We are ranked #2 by US News and World Report in both Undergraduate Teaching and Most Innovative Schools.

The starting date for this position is August 2024. Review of applications will begin immediately, and will continue until the position is filled. Brevard College seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce, and encourages qualified candidates across all group demographics to apply.
