

Visual Arts Scholarship Information

FOR NEW APPLYING STUDENTS:

The Art Department awards Art scholarships to students based on the submission of the following items:

- ◆ A completed Visual Arts Scholarship Application.
- ◆ 10-15 images of the student's recent original works. (Electronic images of your artwork in .jpg digital format).
- ◆ 2 letters of recommendation (If possible one from your high school art teacher).

These application materials can be sent either electronically (send to pomphrdj@brevard.edu) or in hard copy form (with images burned to CD). Send to Diane Pomphrey's attention to the address listed below.

The prospective student's work is evaluated by the art faculty and a recommendation is made to the Office of Admissions. To receive a Visual Art Scholarship, a student must be in good academic standing and major or minor in Art. For continuing Scholarship assistance, students must maintain a full course load as an Art Major or Minor and maintain a B average in courses within the major (or minor).
