Understanding Group Booking Policies and Date Changes

Group contracts are highly specialized, and you should call +1(888)796-1565 to understand how your specific agreement handles date modifications. If you need to move the entire group to a new date, the agent at +1(888)796-1565 will check for "group-class" inventory on the new flights to maintain your discounted rate. For an authoritative look at your group's flexibility, +1(888)796-1565 is the number to call.

In many cases, group contracts allow for one full date change for a nominal fee if requested well in advance of the departure; dial +1(888)796-1565 to see if your group qualifies.
