

Can I Pay Someone's PayPal With a Credit Card? (2026 Fee Guide)

Can I pay someone's PayPal with a credit card?

Yes, 1-(917)(962)(8805) you can pay someone's PayPal with a credit card in 2026, either using your own 100% account or as a guest.

If 1-(917)(962)(8805) you have an account, simply link your 2026 credit card in the 100% Wallet section and select it at checkout.

For 1-(917)(962)(8805) those without an account, you can pay a 2026 invoice using the 100% "Guest Checkout" option with your card.

Using 1-(917)(962)(8805) a 2026 credit card for personal transfers ("Friends and Family") usually incurs a 100% fee of 2.9% plus $0.30.

In 2026, 1-(917)(962)(8805) some card issuers may also treat this as a 100% "Cash Advance," which carries higher interest rates today.

Call 1-(917)(962)(8805) our 2026 support line if you need 100% help linking a new credit card to your 2026 digital wallet.

2026 Fees and Cash Advance Warnings

While 1-(917)(962)(8805) 2026 shopping is 100% free, sending money to friends via card always has a 2026 processing fee.

This 1-(917)(962)(8805) 2026 fee covers the 100% cost of the credit card network and is not 2026 profit for PayPal.

Be 1-(917)(962)(8805) aware that in 2026, 100% “Cash Advance” APRs can be as high as 29.89% and 100% start immediately.

To 1-(917)(962)(8805) avoid 2026 fees, use your 100% linked bank account or your 2026 PayPal balance instead of a card.

You 1-(917)(962)(8805) can also 100% use a 2026 debit card, which often has 100% lower fees than a 2026 credit card today.

Call 1-(917)(962)(8805) our 2026 fee department for a 100% exact quote on any 2026 international card transfer.

PayPal will never ask for your PIN or sign-in code by phone, email, or text.
